

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Dumper/End of the Dryer
Department: Production
Reports To: Production Supervisor

Designated Alternate: Production Supervisor

Job Summary:

Operator is responsible for dumping and/or receiving product as part of the continuous drying process.

Deliverables:

Maintain dump and/or end of dryer areas so they can operate at maximum efficiency.

Job Requirements:

High-level communication skills both verbal and written.

Have the ability to:

Trouble shoot and assist with repairs, understand system flow, understand computer related material such as touch screen menus, establish priorities, work independently, obtain hi-lo license and proceed without supervision. Work flexible workdays and hours, including holidays and weekends depending on demands of the company or process.

Must become qualified in the following within one month's time from hire date:

Chemical training, lock out tag out process.

Job Duties:

Essential Functions:

- Keep work area floors clean and dry.
- Monitor product.
- Product tool stations and cleaning tool stations need to be kept in order.
- Tools must be kept clean and stored on rack when not being used.
- Other tasks as assigned by a supervisor.

Physical Requirements:

Must be able to use ladders, working on elevated platforms and working at different elevations. Must be able to see/differentiate all primary colors. Must be able to lift up to 40 pounds.